The National Financial Reporting Authority (NFRA), one of the more recent entrants into the exclusive club of regulators, was set up on 01st October, 2018 by the Government of India under the Companies Act 2013.

WHY?

The need for establishing NFRA arose on account of the need felt across various jurisdictions in the world, in the wake of accounting scams, to establish independent regulators, for enforcement of auditing standards and ensuring the quality of audits, and thereby, enhance investor and public confidence in financial disclosures of companies.

MANDATE

NFRA’s mandate is to protect the public interest, and the interests of investors, creditors and users of corporate financial statements over which it has jurisdiction. NFRA has to achieve this objective by establishing high quality standards of accounting and auditing, and exercising effective oversight of accounting functions performed by companies, and auditing functions performed by auditors.

Audit Quality Reviews (AQRs) are an essential component of the method used by NFRA to monitor compliance with accounting and auditing standards. They also provide key inputs to the investigation and disciplinary proceedings activities of the NFRA.

Functions and Duties

The duties of the NFRA are to:

- Recommend accounting and auditing policies and standards to be adopted by companies for approval by the Central Government;
- Monitor and enforce compliance with accounting standards and auditing standards;
- Oversee the quality of service of the professions associated with ensuring compliance with such standards and suggest measures for improvement in the quality of service;
